Customized Culinary Solutions works with Restaurant Groups in a number of ways to astound competitors. Our restaurant group clients are usually located in the local and upper Midwest region, typically own multiple independent locations with chef-focused operations, and are looking to incorporate new menus, set-up recipe software, conduct a senior culinary team ideation session and a whole lot more.

We want to work with you to complement and enhance your restaurants. Together we could make an invaluable team for restaurant-goers across the Midwest!

Our services include:

- Menu development and R&D
- Recipe documentation and evaluation
- Systems analysis and operational reviews
- Culinary operational reviews and Q&A services
